- Hunter horses can compete in all classes as stated, but only hunter horses can compete in the hunter class
- Hunter horse definition: A show hunter horse is a quality, well-built horse with good conformation, substance, and a calm, bold temperament, bred to appear capable of carrying a rider safely and comfortably over varied terrain for a day's hunting, focusing on ground-covering movement and impeccable manners over flashy movement or refined looks. They possess strength and bone without coarseness and must exhibit obedience and presence in the show ring, often including a controlled gallop, making them sturdy yet refined.
- Youngstock classes are for horses 3 years and under. Birthday taken from the first of August.
- Maiden horse has not won a class before.
- Novice horse has not won champion before.
- Open horse is open to all horses including maiden and novice.
- Ponys are ne (not exceeding) 14hh
- Galloways are 14hh, ne (not exceeding) 15hh.
- Hacks are 15hh and over.
- All competitors under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian present to be eligible to compete.
- Riverview Equestrian Services has the right to refuse entry or evict any misbehaving horses, competitors, spectators or visitors from the ring or grounds.
- Riverview Equestrian services shall not be responsible for loss, damage or injury during the competition and competitors and visitors enter at their own risk.
- The judges decision is final, we will not tolerate bad behaviour or abuse.
- Tagged Helmets and boots must be worn.
- Nominations close Wednesday
- Late nominations accepted with a $20 late fee.
- No refunds on nominations after nominations close.
